

RELATIVE PRONOUNS WORKSHOP

A. Beginner Level Worksheet: Write in the box the relative pronoun in each of the following sentences.

1. He said he saw me there, which was a lie.
2. My brother, who is a doctor, has gone to America.
3. He found what he was looking for.
4. Take whichever you like.
5. Whoever wants to come, is welcome.

B. Intermediate Level Worksheet: Fill in the blanks with a relative pronoun.

1. You can choose one person, you like, to share the prize with you.
2. you bought last week is on sale for less this week.
3. The winnershave become famous already, will receive money and other prizes.
4. This is the place I remember very well.
5. The baby, had been disturbed by the cat, wailed loudly.

C. Advanced Level Worksheet: Join the sentences together in each of the following questions, using a relative pronoun.

1. Where is the parcel? I left it here yesterday.
2. He is a poet. His works are widely known.
3. The rope was old. It snapped.
4. Can I borrow the book? You are reading it.
5. The farmer is cutting the corn. The corn has ripened.