

Match the personality traits from the box to their meanings.

Easygoing Egotistical Inflexible Modest Outgoing
Stingy Supportive Temperamental Unreliable

	A person who doesn't change easily and is stubborn.
	Someone who doesn't like giving or spending money.
	Someone who has a very high opinion of him- or herself.
	Someone who is helpful and encouraging.
	A person who doesn't do what he or she promised.
	A person who enjoys being with other people.
	A person who has unpredictable or irregular moods.
	A person who doesn't worry much or get angry easily.
	Someone who doesn't brag about his or her accomplishments.

SPEAKING

- A. What is a FRIEND?
- B. There is a saying "To have a good friend, you need to be a good friend." What's your definition of it?
- C. What qualities do you think are important in a friend?
- D. Do you have a Best Friend (BF)? – What is he or she like? (describe him or her physically and personality)

Roy is setting up his online profile to meet people, find out what kind he's looking for.

Roy likes people who...

1. are serious.
2. are outgoing.
3. aren't too serious.
4. are sensitive.
5. are easygoing.

Join the statements about Roy describing his ideal person.

- a) I like people who _____ and who _____
- b) You know, someone _____
- c) I'd like someone _____ -- who _____ have a good sense of humor.

I have something in common with

I can talk to easily.

aren't too serious

I can have fun with.

RELATIVE PRONOUNS ARE USED FOR...

WHO THINGS.

WHICH THINGS & PEOPLE.

THAT PEOPLE.

Which sentences from the previous exercise, the RELATIVE PRONOUN is omitted?

NOTE: Sometimes the RELATIVE PRONOUN can be omitted when you have a double subject.

Use the correct RELATIVE PRONOUN (who, that, which) or an X when it's not necessary.

- a) Dana is the girl I went to the cinema with.
- b) My friends are the kind of people are always honest with everyone.
- c) HOW I MET YOUR MOTHER is a TV show represents some sort of American life.
- d) Studying English is something I've always wanted to do.
- e) The comadres are girls met at an English school.
- f) THE SIMPSONS is the program everybody watches and loves.
- g) I wouldn't like to work with people cannot permit me do my best.
- h) I'm really interested in traveling with someone I feel safe.
- i) That's the bike I told you about.