Read the text. Choose the right words and write them on the lines.

The weather

- Example Rain, sun, wind, ice and snow areall..... different kinds of weather. Earth, the weather is coldest if you live in the north or the far south, and hottest in the middle of the planet.
- Some of the countries in the north have long winters, with snow on the ground for of the year. They also have long nights, with only a few hours of light the day. Ice on the roads makes difficult, and cars need to have special tyres.
- wind, people in hot countries would find it difficult to cool. Countries which have hot sunny summers are great for beach holidays, but they are too hot, they often have deserts. In the desert there is very little rain every year. Plants and animals find it difficult to live there in such weather because there is so little water.
- Countries that have rain are usually very green because trees, grass and plants grow well there, there are also lots of cloudy days in these countries.

Look at the picture and read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

Late for school?

From Monday to Friday, George wakes up at seven o'clock and catches the bus to school at eight. But today, he woke up at half past seven! He quickly got dressed, brushed his teeth and left the house. He didn't have enough time to eat breakfast or say good morning to his parents.

George ran down the road to the bus stop, but he was too late for the school bus! 'I'll take the train,' he thought. 'It's really fast, so I might still arrive at school before lessons start.'

He ran to the train station as fast as he could and bought a ticket. But when he walked onto the platform, the train was leaving! He read a timetable and found out that there wasn't another train for an hour!

Then, he looked at a clock in the station. It was already midday! There was nothing he could do now. 'Somebody, please help me! I need to get to school!' he shouted.

Then, George heard his mum. 'George, what's the matter? You're talking in your sleep,' she said. He woke up. 'I'm late for school, Mum!' he said. 'But it's Sunday, George. You don't have to go to school today,' said his mum. Suddenly, George understood – it was just a dream! He felt very happy and closed his eyes to sleep again.
