

Why Koala Has No Tail

Long ago, Tree Kangaroo and Koala were best friends. Tree Kangaroo was a hard worker and resourceful while Koala was lazy and selfish. Tree Kangaroo and Koala were very thirsty but there was no water in the stream.

Tree Kangaroo had the idea of digging a hole for water in a dry streambed. Tree Kangaroo wanted to dig, but Koala was making excuses about why he couldn't help Tree Kangaroo dig the hole. Tree Kangaroo was very tired and thirsty but he kept digging even when Koala was asleep.

Finally, Tree Kangaroo dug the hole alone and when he finally found water, Koala came in and drank all of it. Tree Kangaroo was furious at Koala's selfish acts, so Tree Kangaroo pulled Koala by his long, furry tail and pulled so hard that it came off.

Because of his selfishness, Koala has no tail and is no longer his best friend.
