

Name:
Teens 2

PRESENT SIMPLE AND PRESENT CONTINUOUS

Study the phrases that we use with present continuous and Present simple.

PRESENT CONTINUOUS

PRESENT SIMPLE

1. Read the examples. Then choose the correct words to complete the rules.

I always read fantasy novels. (present simple)

At the moment, I'm reading a romance novel. (present continuous)

- a. We use the present simple to talk about habits / actions in progress now.
- b. We use the present continuous to talk about habits / actions in progress now.
- c. We use adverbs of frequency (e.g. always, sometimes, never) with the present simple / present continuous.
- d. We use the phrases at the moment and right now with the present simple / present continuous.

2. Look at the time phrases below. Drag and drop them into the correct column.

Never every weekend right now
Now Today at the moment on Mondays
once a week today Every day

Habit (present simple)	Action in progress now (present continuous)