

Fun With Idioms

Match the idioms with their meanings.

|                   |                      |                           |
|-------------------|----------------------|---------------------------|
| did not punish me | feeling sick         | someone who likes reading |
| to be afraid      | to feel very happy   | joking with me            |
| go to bed         | said the wrong thing | time passes quickly       |

|                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1.  You hit the sack if you are tired.                                                  | 2.  Time flies when I play with my friends.                                                     | 3.  My friend is a bookworm. He reads all the time.                                                  |
| 4.  The burglar has got cold feet, when the dog started barking.                      | 5. He really put his foot in his mouth when he mentioned the party to her. She hadn't been invited.  | 6.  I panicked when he said the test was tomorrow, but then I realised he was just pulling my leg. |
| 7.  My mother let me off the hook, if I made the same mistake again, I'd be punished. | 8.  She was on top of the world when she won the first prize.                                 | 9.  He feels under the weather, so he is not able to go to the school.                             |