Getting the Main Idea

Read each of the following paragraphs. Then read the four sentences below each paragraph. Choose the sentence that best states the main idea of the paragraph. Then neatly copy that sentence on the line provided.

- a. Ellen told Annemarie how much she loved the farmhouse and the meadows where Henrik lived. The scene was part of Annemarie's childhood, and she didn't usually pay much attention to how beautiful it was. But now she looked at everything in a new way and realized that Ellen was right. It was a beautiful place.

1. Ellen liked visiting Annemarie's uncle.
 2. Ellen made Annemarie realize how special the farmhouse was.
 3. Annemarie had spent her childhood at the farmhouse.
 4. Annemarie realized that Ellen was right.

- b. Annemarie listened to her mother and her uncle talking in the kitchen. For a moment, it seemed like her long-ago visits to the farm, with the children in bed upstairs and the adults downstairs talking and laughing. But Annemarie knew that this visit was different—this time no one was laughing.

1. Annemarie's mother and uncle were talking in the kitchen.
 2. No one was laughing.
 3. At the farm, the children slept upstairs.
 4. This visit to the farm was different from most visits.
