

Spoonerisms, Palindromes & Oxymoron

A spoonerisms is

Example:

Find the spoonerism in each of these fairy tale titles and retype them correctly.

- ☺ Rittle Led Hiding Rude
- ☺ Beeping Sleauty
- ☺ Back and the Jeanstalk
- ☺ The Pee Little Thrigs
- ☺ Bee Grilly Throats Guff

Checking Point

I think spoonerisms are

It was _____ to see and fix the spoonerisms.

My favourite spoonerism of the day was

Palindromes are

Word Example:

Phrase Example:

Answer each question with a palindrome word.

- ☺ What is the comparative of red?
- ☺ What do they drive in F1?
- ☺ Which organ is used to see?
- ☺ Who gave birth to you?
- ☺ When is the sun at its brightest?

Is this a palindrome?

- ☺ Step on no pets.
- ☺ Poor Dan is a droop.
- ☺ Not on to no ton.
- ☺ Too bad I hid a boot.
- ☺ Never odd or even.
- ☺ Spot on tops.
- ☺ Mam I make jam.
- ☺ Senile felines.

Checking Point

I think palindromes are

It was to find the palindromes.

My favourite palindrome of the day was

An oxymoron is

Example:

Find the oxymoron in each sentence and type it in the box below.

☺ Jonas found the original copy of his contract.

☺ The fight got pretty ugly before you broke it up.

☺ A deafening silence fell over the valley.

☺ That show is seriously funny!

☺ I made a deliberate mistake to lose the game.

Checking Point

It was _____ to learn about oxymoron.

My favourite oxymoron of the day was _____

Reflection

What stood out for you today?

I wonder _____

