

Exercise 1.1

1. Look at the squares and answer.

A.

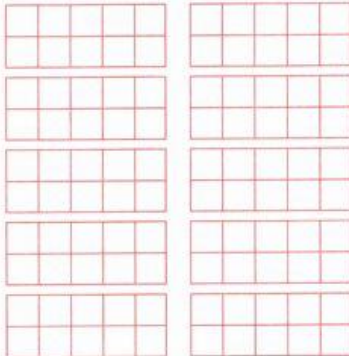

How many ones are there?

_____ one or $1 \times 1 = 1$

B.

How many ones are there?

_____ ones = _____ ten or $1 \times 10 =$ _____

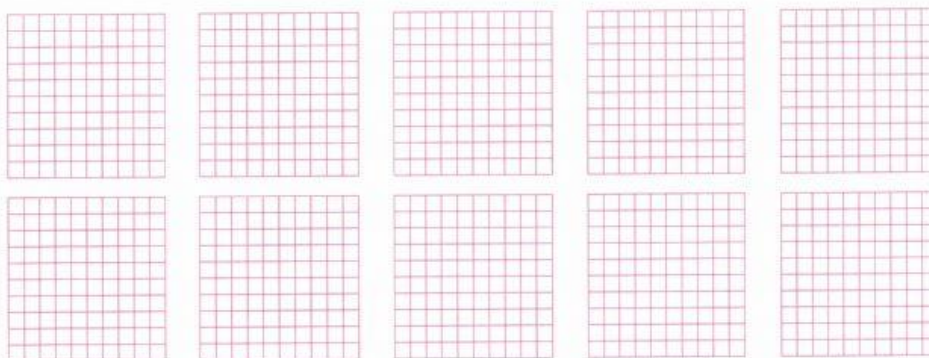

C.

a. How many tens are there?

10×1 ten = _____ tens

b. How many ones are there?

10×10 ones = _____ ones
= 1 hundred

D.

a. How many hundreds are there?

10×1 hundred = _____ hundreds

b. How many tens are there?

10×10 tens = _____ tens

= 1 thousand or $10 \times 100 = 1000$

c. How many ones are there?

10×100 ones = _____ ones = 1 thousand or $1 \times 1000 = 1000$

How many zeros are there in one thousand?

Let me see.
There are three zeros in 1,000!

