

Run-on, Incomplete, or Complete Sentence?

Choose the correct option for each sentence.

1. Two travelers were walking in the middle of the day.
2. Went under a big tree to rest in the shade.
3. They looked up at the big, beautiful leaves and one of them noticed that it was a type of tree called a Plane Tree.

4. "This is a useless tree because it has no fruit!"

 5. "Leaves all over the ground!"

 6. "My leaves give you the shade that cools you from the midday sun," said the Tree.

 7. The story tells us that we don't always notice the good things that we have, we don't appreciate them.
-

1. The Mice called a meeting to decide on a plan to free themselves from their enemy, the Cat, and they needed to live a safer life because they could never leave their homes to go outside.

2. They wanted to think of some way to know when the Cat was coming, so they could run away in time.

3. Lived constant fear.

4. Many plans were discussed.

5. One Mouse got up and said, "I have a plan that seems very simple and successful."

6. "All we have to do is hang a bell around the Cat's neck, it will be really helpful to hear that because she's usually very quiet and she's always hunting.

7. "When we hear the bell ringing, we will know that she is near."

8. So happy to hear a plan that nobody thought of before.

9. An old Mouse arose and said, "I think the plan from this young Mouse is very good."

10. "My only question is: Who will put the bell on the Cat?"

11. Saying and doing are two different.