Future Perfect

VS

Future Continuous

Complete the table using the past participle form of the following verbs.

take	know	eat	get	show
ride	write	have	spend	go

Future Perfect vs Future Perfect Continuous

Complete the following sentences using the correct form of the verbs in parentheses.

1. By this time next week, he _____ (finish) his art project and he will be able to take a day off.
2. I'm sorry I can't come. I _____ (play) soccer at 7:00 p.m. tomorrow.
3. My boss won't be at work at 5:30 p.m. She _____ (go) home already.
4. Between 10:00 and 12:00 tomorrow, I _____ (have) a meeting so I'll call you after that.
5. I hope you _____ (finish) making dinner by the time I get home.
6. I can't wait! This time next Friday, we _____ (lie) on a beach in California!
7. This article says that by the time you're 50, you _____ (spend) a total of 16.7 years asleep.
8. Don't call between 7:00 and 7:30 because I _____ (have) my piano lesson.
9. Hurry up! The film _____ (start) soon. We can't miss it!
10. Do you think that Lex _____ (fix) the car by tomorrow?

