

Types of Adjectives

In your own words, explain what each of these adjectives are and give an example of each.

Descriptive adjective

Example

Proper adjective

Example

Demonstrative adjective

Example

Interrogative adjective

Example

Adjective of order

Example

Adjective of Number

Example

Compound adjective

Example

Possessive adjective

Example

Self-Assessment Check Point

I am confident in explaining:

I am confident in giving examples of:

To improve further I should

Find the adjective in each sentence and type it in the box. Then choose what type of adjective it is.

The long-suffering horse died during the night.

Adjective:

Those cupcakes came from Thatchfield Bakery.

Adjective:

His studies are in the field of psychology.

Adjective:

The first chapter is written in Latin.

Adjective:

Queen Penelope was impulsive.

Adjective:

Whose phone is ringing?

Adjective:

Rina's Hungarian boyfriend is visiting her in England.

Adjective:

Too many of the nurses left during the pandemic.

Adjective:

He was a cold-blooded criminal.

Adjective:

Could I borrow your ruler please?

Adjective:

You are to be commended for being a loyal friend.

Adjective:

What was the last item on the list?

Adjective:

Neil was open-minded and listened.

Adjective:

Take those pests outside!

Adjective:

The Californian beaches were restored.

Adjective:

Which dress should Tammy buy?

Adjective:

Self-Assessment Check Point

I am confident in identifying:

I am not always sure when identifying:

To improve further I should