

Lisa's Cat Poem

Choose the correct word.

Lisa had a blue blew cat,

who blue blew inside her hat

Lisa had ate eight other cats,

who often ate eight lots of rats.

The cats made maid a big mess one day,

and then the made maid began to say,

"You have too two many cats!"

Too Two on your head,

and seven under your bed.

Now Lisa knows nose all this,

so she tapped her knows nose and said

"Hey Miss"

My deer dear maid, everything you say is true!

So, I will trade my nine cats, for nine deer dear.

That's what I will do.
