

both – all other – another

both / all

- We use both to talk about two things.
Both Rachel and Ruth enjoy going to the theatre. (not The both Rachel and Ruth ...)
- We use all to talk about a total number of people or things.
We visited all the museums in the city.

Example:

All the questions are about cities.
Are you all ready?
The city has both beaches and museums.
Central Park and Times Square are both popular.
There are many other great places to visit.
The other famous thing here is the statue of Jesus.
There's another beautiful church in the city.

another / other

- We use another with a singular noun to talk about 'one other' person or thing. We write it as one word.
This café is closed. There's another one over there.
- We use other with plural nouns and uncountable nouns to talk about people or things in general which are different from the ones we are talking about.

*We wanted to see the palace and the cathedral, but my sister wanted to visit other places.
(not another places)*

Were there other people there?

- We use the other with singular or plural nouns to talk about one or more things already mentioned.
We didn't eat in the other restaurant. (= We know there are only two restaurants.)

The other famous places to visit are all in the old town. (= We are talking about a list of famous places.)
