

PRESENT SIMPLE

- affirmative form

Sentence construction			Rules of forming the 3 rd person singular
I	play	volleyball.	The verbs in the 3rd person singular get -s ending. There are some spelling rules you have to learn. 1) Y changes into -i in the end of the verbs if there is a consonant before it. e.g.: try → tries 2) If the verb ends with -ss, -sh, -ch, -o or -x, it gets -es ending in 3rd person singular. e.g.: wishes, mixes, matches, watches, misses, goes, does
