

Pre-watching

What do you take into consideration when judging a person by their appearance?

While-watching

1. What parts of a face are taken into consideration while studying the chances for success among footballers?
2. What is the ratio between width of the face and the level of success?
3. What do men with broad cheek bones tend to be?
4. What kind of person do the wrinkles on the forehead characterize?
5. What side do scientists usually show to the camera?
6. What do people who take selfies with duck faces tend to be?
7. What kind of people does a big nose characterize?

Post-watching

Can we always rely heavily on the appearance when judging a person?