

BE BORN

These kids talk about the day they were born. Read the texts and complete with was or were. Then, complete the questions and answers.

I born in Germany on January 12th, 1998. My mother says it a very cold day. It white with snow. My father and grandparents at home and my brother and sister at school. It almost midday. My dad very nervous. My grandparents very nervous, too. My mom not. After all, I her third child. I born an hour later. I named Julie.

I am from Ireland. I born on July 15th, 2000, 15 days earlier than I supposed to. I already hyperactive. It a sunny day and my parents on holiday, so they at the beach. It hot, so they at the sea when my mom said it time to go to the hospital. My dad very nervous because I his first child. I born four hours later. My name is Henry.
