

1. Read the text. Complete the sentences with names of the creatures.

The Baku
The Alp
Phobetor
The Sandman

- a. _____ Which originally came from China, is a mixture of animals.
- b. _____ Who appears before children fall asleep, is kind and helpful.
- c. _____ Who was an ancient Greek god, could change shape easily.
- d. _____ Which comes from Germany and Austria, changes dreams into nightmares.

2-Find the words in the text and write the word beside to the meaning

Common

a) Dying underwater

Drowning

b) Ordinary, frequently seen

Invisible

c) Not able to be seen

Sprinkle

d) A quick and soft movement of wings

Flutter

e) Put a small amount over something

3- Are the sentences True or False? Read and mark T or F

- A) The baku had an elephant's head and tiger's body. _____
- B) The alp only visits each person once in his or her lifetime. _____
- C) People used to sleep with a mirror to protect themselves from the alp. _____
- D) Phobetor's relatives were the gods of sleep and dreams. _____
- E) Children know the sandman has visited when they wake up with sand in their beds. _____
