

1. Complete using all lowercas. Be careful with spelling and apostrophes

1 ★ Complete the table with the correct form of have to, need to, must and should.

Needs and obligations have to	I <sup>1</sup> have to leave soon. It's getting dark. She <sup>2</sup> study maths. We <sup>3</sup> eat now. We can wait.
need to	You <sup>4</sup> train to be a nurse. He <sup>5</sup> do a degree to be an actor.
must	I <sup>6</sup> be late for college. We <sup>7</sup> obey the rules.
should	He <sup>8</sup> apply for the course. It sounds interesting. They <sup>9</sup> worry . It isn't important.

2. Use proper capitalization, spelling and punctuation.

2 ★★ Make sentences using have to, need to, must and should.

Alfie / not need / study / foreign languages

Alfie doesn't need to study foreign languages.

1 you / not must / forget

2 he / should / do more homework

3 we / not have / wear a school uniform

4 James / need / work harder in class

5 Matilda / have / pass the exam

6 you / not should / go to bed so late

7 we / not must / use phones in class

8 they / not have / go to school today

3. Write the correct word on the spaces, careful with spelling!

This award scheme for young people is now nearly sixty years old, and operates in 140 countries. You <sup>need</sup> to complete need to complete a number of different tasks to get a bronze, silver or gold award.

Years ago, girls couldn't take part, but now you <sup>1</sup>have to be  a boy to get involved. There are five different types of tasks that you <sup>2</sup>must to do .

1 Volunteering

You <sup>3</sup>should help  a charity or people in your community.

2 Physical activity

This <sup>4</sup>has to be  a team sport, but it should be connected to fitness.

3 Skill

Participants can choose a practical skill they would like to improve, such as singing or painting.

4 Expedition

Each person <sup>5</sup>should to  plan an adventurous journey to go on.

5 Residential stay

This task involves working in a team and staying away from home for five days. You <sup>6</sup>don't need  work well with others to complete this task.

Read the text on page 52 and do the exercises.

1. Select the best heading (title) for the article.

The best heading for the article is ....

- a Bad weather destroys Makoko school
- b New floating school in Makoko
- c Boat sent to help Makoko school

2. Select the correct words for each sentence

2 ★★ Read the article again. Choose the correct words.

Adeyemi is visiting /is from/ hasn't been to Nigeria.

- 1 Makoko is not a very wet/wealthy/windy neighbourhood.
- 2 Adeyemi's design helped to use/create/avoid waste.
- 3 They didn't use expensive/eco logical/local materials to build the school.
- 4 Solar panels/Plastic barrels/Local materials provide power for the school.
- 5 The school has got three classrooms/plants/floors.

3. Read the text again and select T (true) or F (false)

1-

2-

3-

4-

4. You don't need to do this exercise.

5. Drag and drop the words on the spaces.

5 ★★ VOCABULARY PLUS Complete the sentences with the words.

challenging creative historic ordinary unique

This building is not ... ordinary ... It's unusual.

- 1 He loves art. He's very ... .
- 2 It isn't like anything else. It's ... .
- 3 The book is ... . It's hundreds of years old.
- 4 Is the work easy, or is it ... ?