

Review: Comparatives and Superlatives (stronger and strongest)

1. Complete the sentences with the comparative or superlative adjectives in brackets:

The new truck is _____ (big) than the old one.

The old truck is _____ (short) than the new one, too.

The River Nile is the _____ (long) river in the world.

Are new trucks _____ (fast) than old ones?

The port in Shanghai is the _____ (big) port in the world.

Atlanta's airport in the US is the _____ (busy) airport in the world.

Dubai has the _____ (tall) building in the world)

Cars are _____ (noisy) than horses.

2. Read Lui's text and write the comparative adjectives in brackets:

Hi! I'm Luis. I go to school by bike. Riding my bike is _____ (fast) than going on foot. Riding my bike is _____ (slow) than going by car. But riding my bike is _____ (healthy) than going by car!

3. Write the comparative and superlative form of these adjectives:

ADJECTIVE	COMPARATIVE	SUPERLATIVE
LONG	LONGER	THE LONGEST
STRONG
NOISY
HOT
EASY
BIG

4. Look at the pictures. Then, read and complete the sentences. Use comparatives or superlatives:

The blue car is the biggest of all. (big) The green car is older than the red car. (old)
The black boat _____ of all. (long) The white boat _____ than the blue boat. (new)
The white train _____ of all. (fast) The green train _____ than the brown train. (slow)	