

Story: The Snail And The Whale: Part 2

Author: Julia Donaldson

Teacher: Natalia Protomastro

Mirar el video y seleccionar la palabra correcta. Es recomendable mirar la primera vez sin detener y luego seguir el texto y detener para seleccionar la palabra y luego seguir mirando el video.

This is the whale who came one morning . When the tide was low and afternoon

high

night

the stars were bright. A humpback whale, immensely long . Who sang short to the snail a wonderful song. Of shimmering ice and golden caves.

rocky

coral

And shooting stars and small waves. And this is the fin of the humpback enormous

tail

big whale. He held it out of the starlight sea. And said to the shark "Come sail with me"

snail

fish

This is the sea. So wild and big , that carried the whale and the snail on his tail.

free

To towering icebergs and far-off lands. With high mountains and golden sands.
fiery silver

These are the seas that arched and crashed, that foamed and frolicked and waters
waves

sprayed and splashed the small snail on the tail of the whale.
tiny
minute