READING COMPREHENSION – Future Tense

- Read and drag and drop to complete with the verbs from the list:

will – I'm going to – will – Is going to come – are going to – they will – I will – are going to – will

Planning a

(two neighbors talking)

Martha:...What a horrible weather today. I'd love to go out, but I think it _____(1) continue raining.

Jane: Oh, I don't know. Maybe the sun _____(2) come out later this afternoon.

Martha:I hope you're right. Listen, I_____(3) have a party this Saturday. Would you like to come?

Jane: Oh, I'd love to come. Thank you for inviting me. Who_____(4) come to the party?

Martha: Well, some people haven't told me yet. But, Peter and Mark _____(5) help out with the cooking!

Jane: Hey, I_____(6) help, too!

Martha: Would you? That would be great!

Jane:I_____(7) make lasagna!

Martha: That sounds delicious! I know my Italian cousins _____ (8A) be there. I'm sure they _____(8B) love it.

Jane: Italians? Maybe I_____(9) bake a cake...

Martha: No, no. They're not like that. They_____ (10) love it.

- Now choose the right answers to these questions about the story. Put a TICK in the right option!

Q1: What do they think about the weather?
- It's beautiful.
- It's terrible.
- It's snowing.

Q2: What does Martha have to share?
- News that she's going to get married.
- News that she's going to have a party.
- News that she's going to have a baby.

Q3: What are Peter and Mark going to do?
- They're going to cook lasagna.
- They're going to help with the cooking.
- They're going to come dressed as clowns.

Q4: What does Jane offer to do?
- She says she'll help cook.
- She says she'll come dressed as a clown.
- She says she'll speak Italian with her cousins.

Q5: How does Jane react to the news about the Italian cousins?
- She's happy they'll taste her lasagna.
- She's afraid they won't understand English.
- She's says she'll bake a cake instead of lasagna.