Conjunctions

Directions: Click on the conjunction in the sentence and then identify which type of conjunction is being used in that sentence. Remember, certain conjunctions are two words.

1. I ate pizza and chicken at the buffet last night.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

2. The elderly man could neither laugh nor cry.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

3. Until he reviewed the answers, he wasn't sure why he had failed the test.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

4. Students may attend in person or they may choose to attend digitally.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

5. Emilio was not allowed to eat his dessert because he had not finished his dinner.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

6. Theresa ate her pecan pie on the porch whenever she could.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

7. I am neither a ballerina nor a tap dancer.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

8. The baby cried and wailed to get its mother's attention.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

9. I will have both the apple pie and the pumpkin pie for dessert on Thanksgiving day.
   coordinating subordinating correlative

10. While you are waiting for your turn in the classroom, you need to remain patient.
    coordinating subordinating correlative

11. The painting was either too wide or too tall to hang on the wall.
    coordinating subordinating correlative

12. William realized he had left his phone in the car after the performance had begun.
    coordinating subordinating correlative