Harry Potter

Put the verbs in the Simple Past or in the Past Continuous.

When Harry Potter was very young, he (live) _____ with his uncle, his aunt and his cousin. They (not / love) _____ him and he (not / be) ____ happy in that house. One day, Harry (look) _____ out of the window when he (see) _____ an owl that (carry) _____ a letter in its beak. The letter (be) _____ from Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. But Harry's uncle (not / want) _____ him to become a wizard, so he (not / give) _____ him the letter. Many other owls (come) _____ and they (bring) _____ hundreds of letters for Harry, so his uncle (decide) _____ to go to a lonely island with his family.

That night on the island, while they (celebrate) _____ Harry's eleventh birthday, Rubeus Hagrid (appear) _____ and rescued him. Then Hagrid (take) _____ Harry to Diagon Alley, where he (buy) _____ an owl, a wand and his uniform. Then, while Harry (travel) _____ on the train to Hogwarts, he (meet) _____ his new friends Ron and Hermione.

When they arrived at school, they (have) _____ a big dinner. While they (have)____ dinner, The Sorting Hat selected a house for each student. Harry, Ron and Hermione (go) ____ to Gryffindor House. They (be) ____ very happy to be together!