

Draw a line from the type of adjective to the definition and the examples. (use the video for information).

Descriptive

provide indefinite/unspecific information about the noun.
some, few, many, several

Quantitative

The adjective form of proper nouns Italian pizza, American money.

Indefinite

provides information and attribute to the nouns/pronouns they modify or describe. old, kind, fast, small

Proper

asks a question. Must be followed by a noun or a pronoun which, what, whose

Demonstrative

provides the specific number or quantity of the nouns/pronouns.
whole pizza, ten cents, two children

Interrogative

directly refers to something . always comes before the word it modifies this, that, these, those

Look at the underlined adjective. Choose what type of adjective from the three choices (use the video for information).

1. Each child will receive a gift.

Descriptive

Quantitative

Indefinite

Interrogative

Demonstrative

Proper

2. Those dogs are cute.

Descriptive

Quantitative

Indefinite

Interrogative

Demonstrative

Proper

3. It is a long movie.

Descriptive

Quantitative

Indefinite

Interrogative

Demonstrative

Proper

4. Which phone do you use?

Descriptive

Quantitative

Indefinite

Interrogative

Demonstrative

Proper

5. He ate half of my burger.

Descriptive

Quantitative

Indefinite

Interrogative

Demonstrative

Proper