UNIT 8 – FINAL ACTIVITY

Parkrun – the craze that's sweeping the country

Parkrun is a five-kilometre run that takes place at around 200 locations across Britain, from the far north of Scotland to the most southern tip of Cornwall. (1) And with runners in countries such as Denmark, Poland, and Afghanistan also getting out there at the same time, the event is not limited to Britain.

When the run is over, every runner's time is posted on the Parkrun website, or texted to their mobile phone by midday. This means that friends and family members running at different Parkrun sites can compete with each other. (2) The organizers of Parkrun, however, insist that the run is not intended to be a competitive race.

The idea behind Parkrun is very simple. (3) People don't mind getting up for nine o'clock on Saturdays because then the rest of the weekend is free for other activities. (4) Some runners are so keen to improve their speeds that they do the run week after week. Regular Parkrunners include 80-year-olds, as well as school children. (5)

Many runners also try to beat their personal best times. 2
