

Academia Interamericana de Arecibo
6th Grade English
Sometimes a Dream Needs a Push
Plot Pyramid Structure

Name _____

Date September 9, 2020

Value ____ / 15 points

Plot Pyramid Structure

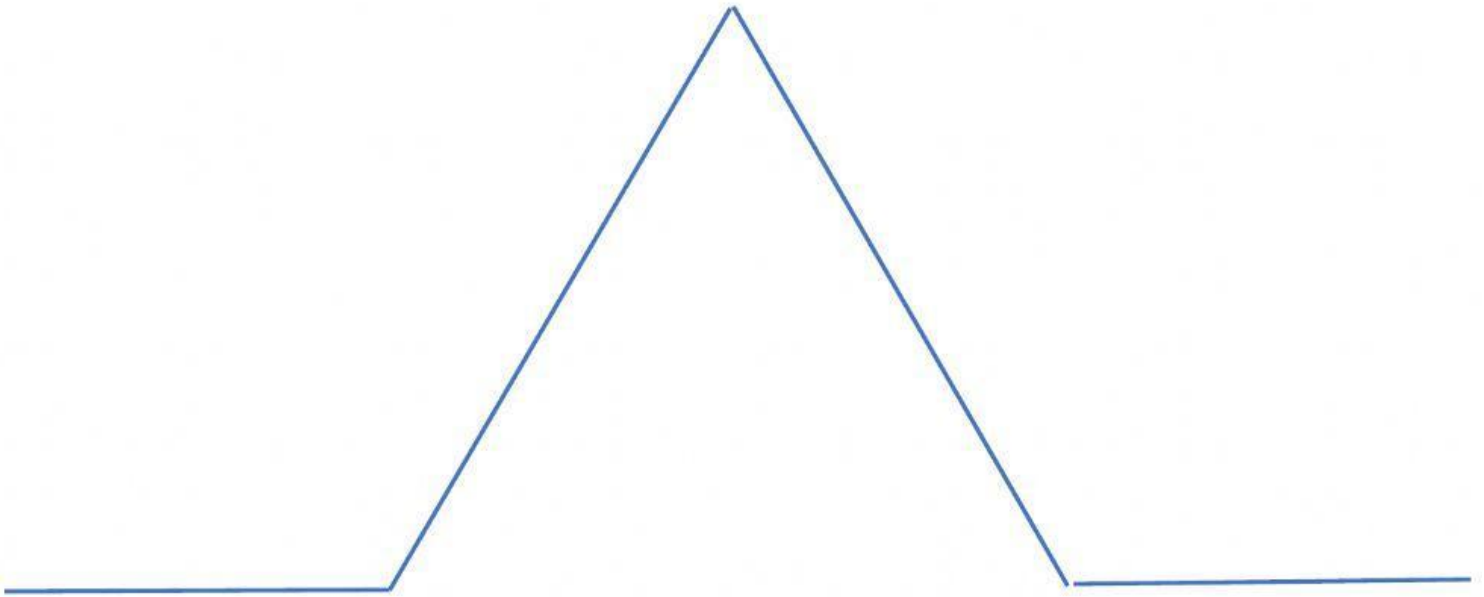

Exposition	Rising Action	Climax	Falling Action	Resolution
------------	---------------	--------	----------------	------------

When the conflict reaches its most intense part	This action moves the plot along as complications arise and conflicts become more intense	Remaining questions are answered, and conflicts are resolved as the story reaches the end.	This is where the characters are introduced, the setting is described, and any background information is revealed.	The excitement settles, and the story starts to wrap up.
---	---	--	--	--

Exposition	Rising Action	Climax	Falling Action	Resolution
------------	---------------	--------	----------------	------------

Chris's dad, Jim, goes to his son practice. Jim gives the team some advice.	Chris is invited by Mr. Evans to join a wheelchair basketball team.	Chris thinks his team is going to have an exciting next season.	Chris loses both of his legs in a car crash. Jim Blair feels guilty.	Chris's team continues to practice. His team plays against the Madison teams but loses.
---	---	---	--	---

Plot Pyramid Structure

Resolution	Rising Action	Falling Action	Climax	Exposition
------------	---------------	----------------	--------	------------