

HAVE TO / DON'T HAVE TO FOR OBLIGATION

A. Complete the sentences with have to, has to, don't have to or doesn't have to.

1. Mum, you _____ cook dinner. I'm making pizza.
2. Brian _____ buy a new printer. His dad couldn't fix the old one.
3. You _____ give me this recipe for the cake. I want to make it, too.
4. Tina _____ type this letter today. She can do it tomorrow.

B. Read again and write T for True or F for False.

Fay:	What are you doing, Grandma?
Grandma:	I'm trying to turn on the computer.
Fay:	You have to press this button.
Grandma:	OK.
Fay:	What do you want to do?
Grandma:	I want to make a cake for my friend Olivia's party. I'm going there tonight. She told me about a website with lots of recipes.
Fay:	Do you know how to surf the Net?
Grandma:	No, this is my first time. Do I type what I want on the keyboard?
Fay:	Yes, but first use the mouse to go here. Then, type the name of the website.
Grandma:	There we go. Hmmm, let me get a pen so I can write some recipes down.
Fay:	You don't have to do that. You can print them out on the printer.
Grandma:	That's good, thanks.
Fay:	No problem.
Grandma:	I'll go make my cake now.
Fay:	I can help you, Grandma.
Grandma:	No, you don't have to help me any more. I know what I'm doing in the kitchen.
Fay:	OK, then I'll download some music.
