And a boy next to her asked her if she wanted something to drink.

In Chapter 6 there are a lot of questions from all the characters. They are in quote marks (' ') because they're direct questions.

If you want to tell someone else about a conversation that contained questions you use reported speech. To report questions you need to turn them from direct questions to indirect questions.

There are two kinds of questions:

- Yes/No questions (closed questions)
- Wh- questions (open questions)

Yes/No questions

Direct: Do you want some water?

Indirect: He | asked | her | if | she wanted some water.

---+ Subject + reporting verb + object pronoun + if + statement

(Note: There is no auxiliary verb.)

Wh- questions

Direct: Where is your brother?

Indirect: He | asked | her | where | her brother was.

---+ Subject + reporting verb + object pronoun + wh- word + statement

(Note: There is no inversion of the verb to be.)

Note: The verbs in the direct questions go back one tense in the reported questions, e.g. present simple --
--> past simple

Direct and indirect questions

Convert these questions from Chapter 6 into reported questions.

1 Are you hungry?

2 Did I sleep all night?

3 Where did you come from?

4 How do you get your water?

5 Why is it safe?

6 Can you see?

7 Why do they let them go to the city?
