

THE STICK-TOGETHER FAMILIES

Read the following lines and answer the questions given below..

1. The gladdest people living are the wholesome folks who make
A circle at the fireside that no power but death can break.

a. Who are the gladdest people living?

b. Where do they gather?

2. And the finest of conventions even held beneath the sun
Are the family gatherings when the busy day is done

a. When do they have their family gatherings?

b. Where do they have their family conventions?

3. There are rich folk, there are poor folk, who imagine they are wise,
And they're very quick to shatter all the little family ties.

a. Whom does 'they' refer to?

b. What do they do to their families?

4. There are some who seem to fancy that for gladness they must roam,
That for smiles that are the brightest they must wander far from home

a. Why do they roam?

b. According to them, when do they get bright smiles?

5. It's the stick-together family that wins the joys of earth,
That hears the sweetest music and that finds the finest mirth;

a. Who wins the joys of the earth?

b. How do they find their joy?

