

ACTIVITY ONE

- 1) Read the following sentences.
- 2) Put them in order to form a dialogue.

CONVERSATION 1: Brenda and Marcus

Background: Marcus and Brenda are friends. They meet at the supermarket.

How are you? Good. Thanks for asking! Hi, Brenda! How are YOU?

Brenda: Long time, no see!

Marcus:

Brenda:

Marcus: Good.

Brenda:

CONVERSATION 2: Sophie and Mark

Background: Sophie and Mark are friends. They meet in the street.

Great, actually! Good. And you? Hiya, Sophie! How is everything?

Sophie: Sup, stranger!

Mark:

Sophie:

Mark: I started working on a new company a week ago!

Sophie: Oh, congratulations!

CONVERSATION 3: Teacher and Students

Background: Professor James introduce a new student to the class. The new student is Emma Piers.

This is Emma Piers. Good morning, Professor James! I am happy to meet you!

Teacher: Good morning everyone!

Students:

Teacher: .She is a new student. Do you want to introduce yourself?

Emma Piers: Hello everyone! I'm Emma.

CONVERSATION 4: Amy, Emily and Gina.

Background: Gina meets with her friend Amy in a local bar. Gina is with her other friend Emily. Amy and Emily meet for the first time.

Ello! How are you? Amy, this is my friend Emily. Hello, nice to meet you!

Gina:

Amy: Hi! Good and you?

Gina: Good! Thanks.

Emily:

Gina: Nice to meet you too!

