

A POISON TREE

Complete the summary by filling in the given spaces with suitable words.

Once the poet was _____ with his friend. He expressed his _____ and _____ it ended. They became friendly but when he grew angry with his foe, he _____ it and allowed his anger to grow. Day and night he watered it with his _____ allowing it to grow. He _____ his foe with false smiles and cunning tricks. The tree kept growing and yielded a bright _____ which _____ his foe to eating it stealthily during the _____. The next morning the poet was _____ to see his foe lying _____ under the tree.