

NŌMEN _____

DIĒS _____

LATIN ROOTS: nomen & gens

Match the derivative from each Latin root family with its corresponding meaning.

NŌMEN: _____

1. nominate _____
2. binomial _____
3. denominator _____
4. renown _____
5. nomenclature _____
6. polynomial _____
7. misnomer _____
8. nominal _____
9. nominee _____
10. denomination _____

- a. the devising or choosing of names for things, especially in science
- b. a person who is formally entered as a candidate for an office or as the recipient of a grant or award
- c. an algebraic expression of the sum or the difference of two terms
- d. the number below the line in a common fraction
- e. the condition of being known or talked about by many people
- f. a wrong or inaccurate name or designation
- g. a recognized autonomous branch of the Christian Church; the face value of a banknote, coin, or postage stamp
- h. an expression of more than two algebraic terms, especially the sum of several terms that contain different powers of the same variable
- i. existing in name only
- j. propose or formally enter as a candidate for election or for an honor or award

GENS: _____

1. congenital _____
2. gender _____
3. homogeneous _____
4. progeny _____
5. generation _____
6. generic _____
7. genre _____
8. genetics _____
9. genocide _____
10. genealogy _____
11. heterogeneous _____
12. indigenous _____

- k. a descendant or the descendants of a person, animal, or plant; offspring
- l. all of the people born and living at about the same time, regarded collectively
- m. characteristic of or relating to a class or group of things; not specific
- n. the study of heredity and the variation of inherited characteristics
- o. the deliberate killing of a large group of people, especially those of a particular ethnic group or nation
- p. of a disease or physical abnormality present from birth
- q. a category of artistic composition characterized by similarities in form, style, or subject matter
- r. a line of descent traced continuously from an ancestor
- s. either of the two sexes (male and female), especially when considered with reference to social and cultural differences rather than biological ones
- t. of the same kind; alike
- u. diverse in character or content