

Friendship Day

Friends and friendship were important even in ancient times. There are many folk tales, myths and legends about friends.

There are also friendship celebrations all over the world. Every year, on the first Sunday of August, people all over the world celebrate Friendship Day. It began in 1935.

Friendship Day is all about having fun with friends and sharing good times together. Friends share jokes, songs and poems with each other. They even make Friendship Day cards.
