Tiffany: Are you free this afternoon? Do you want to go to museum or hang out at the shopping centre?

Jack: I just have to finish my homework, but I think I can finish it this morning. What do you want to do?

Tiffany: Let's go into town. We can go shopping and then get a coffee. We can go to the new cafe near the library. The cakes look great there.

Jack: You know I hate shopping. Why don't we go to the skating park? Kev and Rob will be there skateboarding. We can have meet up with them.

Tiffany: I don't want to spend my Saturday afternoon watching boys skateboarding! That's so boring! But we can go to the park for a game of tennis if you like.

Jack: I'm not really in the mood for tennis. I don't want to do anything too active. I want to just relax. You could come to my house, and we could watch a movie. We've got lots of good food.

Tiffany: I could watch a film on my own. Why don't I bring some board games round? That'll be a bit more fun.

Jack: Okay, that sounds all right, but my little brother will probably want to play too. Is that okay with you?

Tiffany: Sure. Shall I invite anyone else? I think Sophie is free this afternoon.

Jack: Okay, you can invite her, but no one else. I don't want too many people round.

Tiffany: Fine. I'll come round after lunch. Is one o'clock okay?

Jack: Make it half past. I have to write a few emails first. See you
