REVIEW

The Bling Ring ★★★★★

90 min – True Crime / Teen Drama

The Bling Ring was directed by Sofia Coppola, who <sup>1.</sup>  wrote the screenplay. It is based on the true story of teens who stole from celebrities' homes in 2008 and 2009.

Set in and around Los Angeles, The Bling Ring focuses on a group of friends as they plan

<sup>2.</sup>  carry out thefts of clothes, money and jewellery from the homes of Paris Hilton, Orlando Bloom and others. The main problem with the film is that the characters are not likeable. However, the film features beautiful cinematography <sup>3.</sup>  an exciting hip-hop and rap soundtrack. <sup>4.</sup>  , the screenplay captures the way many Southern Californian teenagers speak. <sup>5.</sup>  an excellent performance by Emma Watson, there are strong performances by Katie Chang and Israel Broussard.

<sup>6.</sup>  being enjoyable, the film explores serious issues, including how a privileged life can make people think they're somehow above the law. In my opinion, it's a film many teens will like and is worth seeing.
