

1. Drag and drop to complete the statement:

This	That	These	Those
-------------	-------------	--------------	--------------

When something is close to us, we use _____ in the singular or _____ in the plural. When it's far from us, we use _____ in the singular or _____ in the plural.

2. Complete the table using this, that, these, and those:

	Singular	Plural
Close
Far

3. Match the subject pronoun to its corresponding possessive pronoun:

I	You	He	She	It	We	They
----------	------------	-----------	------------	-----------	-----------	-------------

Hers	Its	Their	Our	Mine	His	Yours
-------------	------------	--------------	------------	-------------	------------	--------------

4. Look at the images and complete the questions:

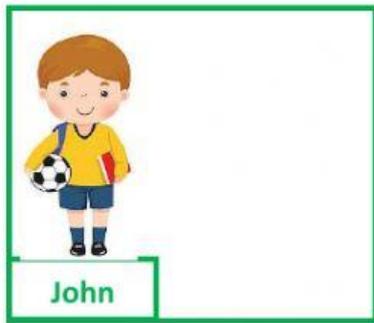

- a) Whose balloons _____?
- b) Whose apple _____?
- c) Whose flip-flops _____?
- d) Whose rabbit _____?
- e) Whose cake _____?
- f) Whose bananas _____?

5. Read the sentences, whose are these? Drag and drop.

- a) This is Peter's rabbit.
- b) Those are Carol's balloons.
- c) That is Bea and Kate's cake.
- d) These are John's bananas.

6. Complete the sentences using this, these, that, and those.

- a) Whose socks are _____? (close to you)
- b) Whose juice is _____? (close to you)
- c) Whose paintings are _____? (far from you)
- d) Whose house is _____? (far from you)
- e) Whose shoes are _____? (far from you)
- f) Whose car is _____? (far from you)
- g) Whose bike is _____? (close to you)
- h) Whose sunglasses are _____? (close to you)