

Why study English? 5 reasons to get started!

INSTRUCTIONS:

- I. Watch the video (2 mn). Try to remember the 5 reasons.
- II. Complete the titles from 1 to 5.
- III. Type the right words to fill in the blanks.
- IV. Watch the video again!

Learning a requires a huge investment of and often ,
but it's a experience.

(time/rewarding/language/money)

5 reasons to learn a language:

1. More:

A new language can open up many new You're able to work in other than your own. Tons of look to multilingual professionals every year!

(countries/hire/doors/employers)

2. Meeting new:

Get to know of other languages on a more level . Meeting new people is one of the main reasons people begin to study a language. new friends is a good enough reason to start

(speakers/making/studying/personal)

3. Exploring a different:

Whether you decide to live or you're just taking a , knowing a language will allow you to better understand the people. This can open up your to not only their country but your country as well. Learn how to view your home from their
.....

(eyes/vacation/abroad/perspective)

Why study English? 5 reasons to get started!

4. Health :

Keep your sharp by studying everyday. You'll be helping your mind off old and stay !

(age/fresh/fight/brain)

5. you can do it:

We've heard every that people give for failing to learn a new language; « too old », not enough time », « wrong genes »; but you let your excuses hold you back. You really learn a new language. You could even hold your first just a few days from now. Don't make any more excuses!!!

(can/conversation/shouldn't/excuse)