

Business English

Idioms - Phrasal Verb- Prepositional Verbs/Phrases

PART 1

A.- Fill in the blanks using ONE word

Some women put off _____ a baby until they are in their mid thirties.

If you feel somebody is not doing well, don't put _____ off: contact them right away.

The candidates/applicants turned up so late I couldn't _____ them that day.

A: Do you know John's phone number?

B: Yes, just a sec. Let me look it up _____ my mobile.

Organic milk goes off relatively quickly but _____ be frozen.

I was heading off to the airport when I found out my flight had been _____

B.- Go over the vocabulary in bold in exercise A and match them with these definitions. Use the infinitive without "to"

_____ : not good to be eaten; go bad

_____ : leave for; set out in order to go to a place

_____ : arrive, often later than expected, or when not expected

_____ : delay doing an activity

_____ : find a piece of information in a specific place

C.- Fill in these sentences using the vocabulary in bold. Use a suitable conjugation.

1. A: What are your plans for Christmas?

B: We're _____ the south and staying there for a week.

2. A: I've already accepted a new job but haven't told my boss yet.

B: You're nuts. Don't _____ it _____ any longer. Go tell him right away.

3. Milk is the most likely product in your fridge to _____

4. A: How did the meeting go?

B: Great, but so many people _____ we had to divide the attendants into 2 groups and schedule a second session.

5. A: What does this mean?

B: I don't remember. _____ the acronym in the appendix.

COMMENTS: