

English Grammar Worksheet - Unit 1
Past Simple & Present Perfect

Name: _____

The Ninth Grade ()

Past Simple	Present Perfect
1. Expresses finished time: - We lived in Kuwait from 1995 1998.	1. Describes unfinished time: - I've been friends with Nuha since we were in kindergarten.
2. Refers to definite (exact) time: - I visited Petra in 2001.	2. Refers to indefinite time: - I've finished my homework.
3. Indicated a series of finished actions: - First he read the text carefully, and then he did the exercises.	3. Expresses experience or result: - She has read this book twice. - I can't enter the house because I've lost the key.
4. With a finished time word (last week, a month ago, yesterday): - I saw John last week.	4. With an unfinished time word (this week, this month, today): - I've seen John this week.

(1) Complete the sentences with the correct present perfect or past simple form of the verbs.

- I (see) _____ an excellent documentary program about snakes.
 - He (come) _____ back from the UAE a week ago.
 - Last week, he (call) _____ me to invite me to his graduation party.
 - They (travel) _____ a lot recently.
 - I (have) _____ a meeting with the manager two days ago.
 - I feel really tired. I (finish - just) _____ tidying and cleaning my room.
 - Look at Kamal ! He (have) _____ a haircut.
 - What films (see - you) _____ this month?
 - Why (phone - not - he) _____ me last night ?
 - It's obvious that you (read - not) _____ this novel.
-

(2) Choose the past tense or the present perfect form in the following sentences.

1. Mr. Johnson left / has left last week for a business trip.
 2. Sam lost / has lost his car keys and can't get home.
 3. The garage had / has had my car for four days now, and it still isn't fixed.
 4. We moved / have moved there ten years ago.
 5. We knew / have known them since they moved to the neighbourhood.
 6. The train arrived / has arrived a few minutes ago.
 7. After the interview, the principal showed / has shown me my office.
 8. We complained / have complained about that problem several times.
 9. A week ago, my grandfather fell / has fallen and broke his leg.
 10. Since the bus strike began, I drove / have driven to work every day.
-