

Interrogative Sentences

Present Simple

Do + I/we/you/they + verb in base form
Does + he/she/it + verb in base form

Do you finish the assignment?
Does he finish the assignment?
Do they finish the assignment?

Past Simple

Did + I, we/you/they + verb in base form
Did + he/she/it + verb in base form

Did I finish the assignment?
Did he finish the assignment?
Did they finish the assignment?

Future Will

Will + I, we/you/they + verb in base form
Will + he/she/it + verb in base form

Will I finish the assignment tonight?
Will he finish the assignment tonight?
Will they finish the assignment tonight?

Future Going To

Am + I + going to + verb in base form
Is + he/she/it + going to + verb in base form
Are + we/you/they + going to + verb in base form

Am I going to finish the assignment?
Is he going to finish the assignment?
Are they going to finish the assignment?

Choose the correct tense for each sentence.

Sentences	Present	Past	Future
1. Are you going to stay with us?
2. Did they sell their car?
3. Is he going to get married soon?
4. Do you know me?
5. Did we bring the groceries?
6. Does he visit you?
7. Am I going to get the job?
8. Will you come tonight?
9. Did Mario get sick?
10. Does Claudia have a child?

Choose the right answer.

- _____ Martha swim every day?
- _____ you see the soccer match last Sunday?
- _____ he cook for us this afternoon?
- _____ your brother visit two days ago?
- _____ Bruno going to study for the test?
- _____ your parents always text you?
- _____ Sally and Jack wear jackets yesterday?
- _____ the teacher going to bring the tests this week?
- _____ Charly usually go to the gym?
- _____ they going to have lasagna for dinner tonight?