A. What do you think firefighters do?.

Everyday heroes

Sam West interviews firefighter, John Marey.

Sam: What did you have to do to become a firefighter?

John: I had to study and take some exams. Then I had to train very hard. Of course, I also had to exercise every day.

Sam: I see. So, we all know that firefighters put out fires. Tell us, what else do you do?

John: Well, we also help save people after earthquakes, car accidents or accidents in the home.

Sam: So, what's the most dangerous thing you've ever done?

John: Last year, during a fire, I had to rescue a 5-year-old girl from a basement. The whole house was on fire and the walls were falling down.

Sam: How did you rescue her?

John: I had to break down the basement door. There was so much smoke that I couldn't see anything. I could only hear the girl crying and that's how I found her.

Sam: It sounds like a hard job.

John: It is. But I love it!
