SUDDENLY, I WAS GOING DOWN...

Last holiday, we went to the mountains with my family. One day we went to a ski resort. I was really excited because I wanted to learn how to ski. When we got there, the instructor was next to me to help me. But, I don't know how, the mountain alone! That was great! and I was going faster and faster. I couldn't stop! Suddenly, I saw the instructor next to me again giving me the instructions to stop. And I did it! we went back up the mountain to the base. It was a great lesson! I was ready to go back up again for a new adventure!
