Rachel and Brian are talking about music. Let's listen:

What singers/bands are they talking about?

Cover the conversation and choose the correct object pronoun.

R. Listen to this. What do you think of it?

B. I hate _____. It's awful. Who is it?

R. Enrique Iglesias. I love _____. He's great.

B. You love _____ because he's cute.

R. What about this song?

B. It's pretty good. Who is it?

R. Lady Gaga.

B. Oh! I can't stand _____. She always wears those terrible clothes.

R.Ok, who do you like? Tell _____.

B. I really like Radiohead. They're fantastic. Do you like _____?

R. Um, they're not bad.

B. My brother and I have tickets to their concert next week. Come with _____!

R. No, thanks. They're OK, but I don't really want to go.

Now, match the highlighted words with the correct definitions.

awful   very pretty or attractive.

cute   don't like someone or something at all.

can't stand   very bad, not enjoyable.

Look at the highlighted object pronouns. Who do they refer to?

R. "I love him. He's grate" refers to _____

B. "I can't stand her" refers to _____

B. "They're fantastic. Do you like them" refers to _____

B. "Come with us" refers to _____

Let's complete the chart.

I	ME
YOU	YOU
HE	_____
SHE	_____
IT	IT
WE	US
THEY	_____