

FUTURE WITH WILL

GRAMMAR

Will is always followed by a verb in simple form and expresses the idea of the future, but the second verb specifies the action in the future.

We usually write 'll after pronouns and will after names:

I'll speak English fluently. Mary will be famous one day.

La contracción o forma simple con will es: I'll, you'll, he'll, she'll, it'll, we'll, they'll.

Affirmative

Subject + Will + verb in simple form + complement

You + will + win + the lottery

Negative

The negative form is: will + not = won't

Subject + Will not + verb in simple form + complement

They + Will not + discover + a cure immediately.

Interrogative

Will + Subject + verb in simple form + complement + ?

Will + you + see + your children's wedding?
