

↓Instructions↓

1. Write a small definition for the words in bold
2. Underline the type of Context Clue for each sentence.

/ definition / contrast / synonym / example / inferring /

- I- My Little cat is so mischievous that he is always doing mess: fooling around, jumping from one place to another, gnawing my shoes and destroying everything in my bedroom!

Definition:

/ definition / contrast / synonym / example / inferring /

- II- Well, this pizza isn't that good, but at least it's edible. The one we had last weekend was absolutely disgusting.

Definition:

/ definition / contrast / synonym / example / inferring /

- III- Yesterday's morning we were so drowsy, our teacher seemed very sleepy as well.

Definition:

/ definition / contrast / synonym / example / inferring /

- IV- Kevin is such a loon, sometimes I wonder "will he say something coherent one day?"

Definition:

/ definition / contrast / synonym / example / inferring /

- V- Ecclesiastics, such as priests, ministers, and pastors, should set models of behavior for their congregants.

Definition:

/ definition / contrast / synonym / example / inferring /

- VI- Most houses in Hawaii are infested with mold, which as a fungus, it grows in humid spots.

Definition:

/ definition / contrast / synonym / example / inferring /