

Reported Questions.

WATCH THE VIDEO AND TAKE NOTES!

- YES/NO QUESTIONS

1. Use ask + me/him/her, etc. + if
2. Change the tense as above.
3. Change the word order from question word order to affirmative word order.

Example:

“Are you married?” asked John. John asked me if I was married.
“Did you go to Tokio?” asked Fi. Fi asked me if I had gone to Tokio.

1. “Do you play tennis?” I asked the girl.
I asked the girl.....
2. They asked me: “Are you thinking of going abroad?”
They asked.....
3. “Have you studied French?” the professor asked her.
The professor asked her.....
4. “Does Britain still have a Queen?” the tourist asked the guide.
The tourist asked
5. “Have you seen the advertisement?” the director asked me.
The director asked me.....

• WH...QUESTIONS

1. Use ask + me / him / her, etc + when / why, etc.
2. Change tense as above.
3. Change the word order as above.

Examples:

“Why are you so unhappy?” Tim asked her. Tim asked her why she was so unhappy.
“How long have you been studying English?” asked the woman.
The woman asked him how long he had been studying English.

1. “How long have you been studying English?” she asked him.

She asked him.....

2. “Where is London?” the student asked the teacher.

The student asked the teacher.....

3. “How much cheese do you need?” she asked me.

She asked me.....

4. “Where are you living?” the interviewer asked me.

The interviewer asked me.....

5. “What do you think of English food?” the examiner asked me.

The examiner asked me.....

6. “How much does the ball cost?” the boy asked.

The boy asked.....

7. “Who do you want to talk?” He wanted to know.

He wanted to know.....

8. “How long does the journey take?” Mum asked.

Mum asked.....