

Name _____

A noun can show who owns something.

One Owner

girl's bike

Chris's melon

man's car

More Than One Owner

girls' bikes

the Cross's house

men's cars

Circle the words that tell who owns what.

Use the underlined words to help you.

1. The spiders are having a party.

spider's party
spiders' party

2. The geese are carrying a melon.

geese's melon
geese' melon

3. The hippo brings pies.

hippo's pies
hippos' pies

4. The princes wear big hats.

prince's hats
princes' hats

5. The toad sings a silly song.

toad's song
toads' song

Notes for Home: Your child identified singular and plural possessives—words that show who owns something. Home Activity: Using possessives (Bob's bed, dogs' bowls), take turns with your child making up sentences that tell who owns what in your home.