Possessive Pronouns Practice

Part A

Drag the box with the pronoun that completes each sentence correctly according to the words in parentheses.

mine – yours – hers – his – ours – theirs

1. The book is _____ (my book), but I'm happy to lend it to you.
2. Your bike is a lot faster than _____. (Mary's bike)
3. I looked everywhere for my keys, but I could only find _____. (your keys)
4. From the two project presentations, we think _____ (Alex's presentation) was the most adequate for our idea.
5. We bought that house last year. Now that is _____ (our house) we can redecorate it as we want.
6. _____ (their proposal) was a lot more interesting and engaging than this one.

Part B

Write the correct possessive pronoun to complete each of the following sentences according to the options given in parentheses. Be careful with the spelling.

1. This car belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Since it is _____, (their – theirs – they) we cannot use it.
2. That's _____. (our – ours – us) We bought it last night at the grocery store.
3. This book is _____. (my – mine – me) It has my name on it!
4. She thinks this dress is _____ (your – yours – you) because it is exactly your size.
5. I saw Jhon dropped a bag a few minutes ago, so I think this is _____. (his – him – he)
6. "Are you sure this book belongs to your mother?" "Yes, I know that book is _____." (her – hers – she)