

USASTudiesWeekly Week 3: American Indians Assessment

Name _____

Date _____

It is important for American Indians to share their heritage because _____.

- a - they have no written languages
 - b - it educates others about American Indian culture
 - c - there are no American Indians living today
 - d - they cannot share their food
-

American Indians shared this common trait:

- a - They all dressed alike.
 - b - They spoke the same language.
 - c - They had the same type of houses
 - d - They respected and cared for the environment.
-

An important animal for Great Plains people was the _____.

- a - buffalo
 - b - tortoise
 - c - frog
 - d - manatee
-

Archaeologists found _____ at the Anasazi cliff dwellings.

- a - pottery, oyster shells and longhouses
 - b - gold, totem poles and scrimshaw
 - c - pottery, food and clothing
 - d - food, soda and video games
-

The Anasazi people lived in _____.

- a - longhouses
 - b - chickees
 - c - hogans
 - d - cliff dwellings
-

USASTudiesWeekly Week 3: American Indians Assessment

These ancient American Indians lived in Mexico, Guatemala, Belize and Honduras and were known for astronomy and math.

- a - Maya
 - b - Anasazi
 - c - Aztec
 - d - Apache
-

Some American Indian cultural regions are:

- a - South, North, East
 - b - Southwest, Northwest, Southeast
 - c - Great Plains, Great Basin, Great North
 - d - Southeast, Southwest, Great Middle
-

The Anasazi may have disappeared because _____.

- a - of drought
 - b - they got tired of their old houses
 - c - of lizard invasion
 - d - Seminoles chased them away
-

People of the Great Plains include the _____.

- a - Timucua
 - b - Apache
 - c - Tillamook
 - d - Iroquois
-

People of the Northwest include the _____.

- a - Aztec
- b - Hopi
- c - Tillamook
- d - Powhatan